Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Monday 22 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wet and windy for most on Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Clear skies during the evening but clouding over from the west during the night with rain spreading east, becoming heavy in west Strengthening southerly winds overnight, gales in west.

Tuesday:
A wet day for most, rain heaviest in Southwest and Southern Highlands, drier spells in sheltered north and east. Strong southerly winds with some severe gale gusts in places.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Further rain in the south on Wednesday, drier and brighter in the north. Windy with the chance of a shower in the west on Thursday. Dry and bright on Friday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.